—Miss Julia Bradley, of Hustonville, has been visiting friends here.

—Mrs. Annie James, of Kirkcaldy, is visiting Mrs. H. K. Weisen.

—W. F. Parker, train dispatcher, is down with something like pneumonia.

—Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Kinney, of Junction City, have been guests of Mrs. W. G. Roney.

—Mr. Hugh Logan, of Hustonville, has been granted a pension for service in the Mexican war.

—Mr. W. M. ZANONE has moved to Standard and taken the position of engineer at the Planting Mills.

—Mrs. W. P. TATE went to Harrodsburg yesterday in response to a telegram that her daughter, Miss Lucy, is sick.

—Mr. A. E. GIBBONS, of Danville, was here Saturday on business—the usual kind which draws him this way.

—The appointments of John J. McElroy and W. M. Bright as notaries public were confirmed by the Senate Friday.

—Messrs. C. C. CARSON and Joe Embury attended the young ladies' hop at Nicholasville and had a royal time. They also took in Lexington.

—Dr. J. G. MOORE, of Jellico, was here Saturday. He tells us that sweet winged peace now hovers over his mountain city and everything is lovely.

—Mr. ALEX. COON, the noted portrait painter, is here to fill some engagements in his line. Those who wish such work should call on or address him here.

—Mr. JOHN S. OWLEY, Jr., left last night to enter the Cumberland University at Lebanon, Tenn., to compete the law studies. He will graduate in a year.

—Dr. LEE F. HUFFMAN has returned from a visit down the Southern road. Dr. A. L. Price, of Hustonville, has been helping him catch up in work for a week or two.

—Misses BESSIE REID and Rhoda Portman, the former to enter Millersburg College and the latter Hamilton College, left Friday. Mr. John M. Foster accompanied them.

—Mr. and Mrs. G. H. BRUCE, Mrs. W. G. WALSH, Rev. A. S. Moffett and others took advantage of the cheap rates to hear Moody and left this morning for Louisville.

—Mr. H. BURNHAM PRICE and bride, of Helenwood, Tenn., passed back home yesterday, after a visit to relatives at Lexington. The new couple makes a very handsome one.

—Col. SAN BIRD left Saturday morning for his home in Bristol, Tenn. His daughter, Miss Mary BIRD, who has become quite a favorite here, accompanied him and will go thence to Virginia to remain some time.

—Mr. C. M. SPONAMORE paid up his subscription on this paper Saturday, till March 1888 making 17 consecutive years that he has taken it. He says that he would be worse than lost without its welcome semi-weekly visit.

—UNCLE PATE EMBURY grows weaker and has given up all hopes of recovery. He sent for Mr. Mack Hoffman, undertaker, the other day, and specified the kind of a casket he wished, where he wished to be buried and the kind of stones he desired placed over his grave.

—J. H. BUTLER and family leave to day for Stanford, their future home. Having lived in our town and county all their lives they have a large circle of friends who regret to see them go away. They will be much missed both in the church and social circles. [Paris, Kentuckian.] They have taken rooms at the Portman House. Capt. Butler is the popular K. C. conductor.

—As there is a prospect that the pay will be increased and the position be made a permanent one, W. E. VARNON has decided to accept the clerkship of the Private Land Claims of which Gov. McCreary is Chairman, so he and his wife will leave for Washington Thursday next. Mr. J. M. Cook will now get Mr. Varnon's former position of Deputy Collector and thus will two good men be promoted.

For Rent, the store-room lately occupied by Penny's Drug Store. Possession Jan 1. John Baughman.

I HAVE a stock of apples, oranges, lemons, bananas, Malaga grapes, figs, dandelion and candles of all kinds. S. S. Myers.

AG. G. FIELD's minstrele will be here January 31. He gave great satisfaction when here before and judging from the press comments his show is better than ever.

Four fine Cloaks for Misses that were $6, $7 and $8 now $3, $3.50 and $4. They must be sold. Also ladies' fine silk, satin and woolen wraps go the same way. S. L. Powers & Co.

THE grand closing out sale of S. L. Powers & Co. is carrying all before it. Nothing to equal it before in Stanford. Goods never were given away at such low prices. Only a few weeks more. Don't fail to attend.

REMEMBER this is no money making sale, the only object being to close out the stock within the shortest time possible. Those coming first will find greatest assortment to select from. Powers' Great Bargain Store.

A LETTER from Mr. Barnes last night tells why he left New Orleans and makes a touching appeal to his friends to send him money so that he can return and minister to the dying needs of the people there. See letter to next issue.

THE people of Lincoln county are making a commendable effort to rid themselves of the odium of being unrepresented in the Legislature by one George M. Davidson. Judge Morrow's Master Commissioner. We pray for their success. [Lebanon Enterprise.]

It has been two years or more since Stanford had a circus, but one is promised early this season. Frank A. Robbins' monster aggregation of rare animals and over 100 performers will agitate the natives in the merry month of May, so that gentlemen write to us.

MR. W. N. POTTS, late of this place, who has charge of the Stanford Relief Mills, has made a good start. Under his management, the mills, which have been running six months, have declared a net profit of $4,100. The capital stock is $20,000. [Richmond Register.]

MR. JOHN BLAIN, the level-headed man in the county, on most any proposition, proves conclusively in a paper published in this issue that Davidson cannot legally hold the office of legislator and master commissioner at the same time. Read the admirable article on our first page.

THE Uncle Tom's Cabin Co. played to a very top heavy house Friday night, but down in the dress circle the spectators were few and far between. Nothing like actual expenses were taken in and if the experience will keep such fossiliferous old chestnuts away, everybody but the coons will be rejected.

THE new and old directors of the First National Bank met Saturday and after examining the business of the institution, which they found in a very satisfactory condition, re-elected J. S. Hocker president, John J. McRoberts cashier and A. A. McKinney assistant cashier, with same pay as last year.

TO THE LADIES—Having bought out the stock of millinery of Mrs. Suwade Sandidge we will continue the business at the old stand. We will keep constantly on hand a full stock of everything pertaining to this time and ask a share of your patronage. Mrs. Patsie Courts and Mattie P. Cox.

J. ALLEN OWENS went to the Millersville neighborhood Saturday and arrested Tom Rost and Jim Couch, charged with behaving disorderly at the village church and disturbing the deliberations of a debating society. He took them at once before Judge Charles R. Bell, who fined them for the offense and being unable to pay, or reply they were brought to jail to serve 50 days each. They are said to be pretty tough citizens.

THE Signal Service has out been been hitting the bull's eye as near the centre with its predictions as it might, so it was with some misgivings that we sent up the cold wave signal Sunday morning in response to a telegram to do so, stating that the temperature would fall 20° by Monday morning. It had been and was still raining pitch forks, but no sooner had the white folds of the flag unfurled to the north-western breeze disclosing the black square than a lively hail set in and the mercury, which was then 36° began to fall rapidly. The hail with occasional gusts of snow, fell all day covering the ground an inch or two and yesterday morning the thermometer showed 18° with a searching wind, making outdoor pursuits decidedly disagreeable. The indications for this 24 hours is "warmer, fair weather." Bear in mind that when neither hail, snow nor rain falls it is considered fair weather.

MR. J. P. DAVIS requests us to say that he has not sold out his store.

DURING the Christmas holidays Jim Helin snatched in the skull of another negro at Hustonville, but was not apprehended till Saturday, when an examination of the case was had. The result was that he was held in $100 to the Circuit Court and no one being desirous of going his bail he was lodged with Jester Owens.

NEW LAW FIRM.—Col. T. P. Hill has taken our bright and clever young friend, Mr. Peter Muir McRoberts, into partnership with him and the style of the firm will be Hill & McRoberts. They will have their office for the present in the building of Hill & Alcorn, which fell to Mr. Alcorn in the division of their property.

MARRIAGES.

—Mr. W. H. Baine and Miss Clara Trumble were married at Mt. Olive church Sunday.

DEATHS.

—After an illness of many months from disease of the liver and kidneys, Mr. Will T. Baughman passed away at 4 P. M. Sunday, in the 38th year of his age. He was a member of the Baptist church and a better hearted man could not be found. If he had an enemy it was himself alone. Conscience of his approaching end, he frequently reverted to it in his wife, assuring her that his prayers had been heard and that he would join the hosts of the redeemed. An aged mother and wife, who was Mrs. Sue Hill, survive him and are consoled with a happy belief that he is far better off than in this world of suffering. The interment will occur in Buffalo Cemetery this morning at 10 o'clock, when a short service will be held at the grave.

—Mr. J. R. Marra writes thus touching of his mother, Mrs. Nancy Marra, who died last week:

"My mother was born in Fayette county, this State, on the 27th of September, 1798, and had therefore passed into the 90th year of her age. In early life she was married to James Marra, of Jessamine county, who died in this city nearly 30 years ago. Eight children were born to them, five of whom are still living. The family moved to Danville nearly half a century ago and have since lived in this place. With my father, she became identified with the far-reaching movement of Alexander Campbell and others at its inception about 70 years ago, and died as she had lived—in the strong and abiding faith of a Disciple.

When my father died he committed to my keeping the precious gift of my mother. In the providence of a merciful God, she was spared to me far beyond the usual limit of human life; but to-day as I part with her it brings to me the deepest affliction that has ever fallen to my lot. To give up the dear old mother who has been the protector of my youth, the faithful adviser of my manhood, and the watchful guardian of my entire life, is to break the tenderest link that binds me to earth. I feel sure that those who have been similarly afflicted can appreciate the sorrow that bears me down to day, and it is from their kind expression of sympathy I receive the strength that will enable me to bear the burdens of other sorrows that are the common lot of us all. [Advocate.]

RELIGIOUS.

—Bishop Wm. H. Hickeloper, the oldest bishop in the Mormon Church, died at Salt Lake City, aged 83 years.

—Rev. W. B. Gasky's revival at the three Methodist churches in the west end of Louisville resulted in 45 conversions.

—The Universalist Church of the Redeemer, at Minneapolis, was burned Sunday morning, entailing a loss of $70,000; insurance, $50,000.

—There will be no service at the Baptist church next Sunday. I will preach in Crab Orchard that day. Come to the Moody meetings, and get all of our Stanford people to come if you can. P. G. Elsom.

—Beecher's church has decided to pay Lyman Abbott at the rate of $6,500 a year while he shows them what manner of preacher he is. Mr. Abbott ought to get up and hustle if he wants to hold this lucrative job.

DANVILLE, BOYLE COUNTY

—Mr. T. M. McFerran, of Russell Springs, is in town to-day, Monday.

—The "Band of Hope," a children's temperance society, held a meeting at the Baptist church Sunday evening.

—It is stated that a negro college is to be erected on the farm recently purchased by two colored preachers from Louisville from Mrs. Amanda Blakeman.

—Mr. C. S. Jackson has in his possession an Indian pipe, picked up by his great uncle, Jesse Jackson, from the battlefield where Tecumseh, the celebrated chief, was killed. It was found so near the body of Tecumseh that it has always been supposed to have been his. It is apparently made of sugar tree, the bowl mounted with a light-colored wood.

—Far the greater tranquility of the numerous citizens who have been uneasy in their little homes regarding the disposition to be made of the estate of the late Dr. Thomas W. Jackson, it may be stated that it will have yet been found. Among his papers is what was once a will leaving his entire estate to the children of his brother, the late John Jackson, with the exception of $500 per year to be paid to his sister, Mrs. Sallie A. Williams, during her lifetime. When discovered the signature to this will had been torn off and the entire instrument revoked. One sad feature connected with the matter, if the estate is to be distributed according to law, will be the disappointment of the many individuals, of no earthly kin to the deceased, who expected confidently to be among the devisees.

—Mr. John D. Randle's died very unexpectedly at his residence in this city on Friday evening. Deceased was in his 85th year and had lived in Danville for many years. He retained his physical strength and was in full possession of his faculties up to the time of his death. He was taken slightly ill with something like indigestion and it was then that the physician discovered that the heart's action was irregular. For one so old he took a surprising interest in passing events. In matters of faith he was an agnostic and not an atheist as many may thoughtlessly charge. He was fond of discussing religious matters and concerning them could reason well and forcibly. He gave preachers and other orthodox professors many hard nuts to crack and claimed that many a one of them so knowledgeable to him that some of his objections to revealed religion were new and startling. He was an enthusiastic fisherman and in pleasant weather was fond of camping out at several favorite spots on Dix River. He spoke German fluently and those acquainted with that language say correctly. By his first marriage he had a large family of children, all of whom he cultivated except one son, Mr. Joshua B. Randle, now of Junction City. His second wife and one child survive him. The funeral occurred Sunday at 3 o'clock P. M. and was attended by a large number of his old friends.

—At Columbus, S. C., John Williams attempted to murder Rachel Manning, his mistress, when she shot and killed him.

—Two thousand and forty-four convicts were built in the United States in the year 1887, making a total of 13,160 for the last eight years.

—While having her wedding trousseau, Mrs. Hattie Whittier, of Cincinnati, fell over and expired in a store on 4th street. She was 27 years old.

—The statistics show that the fires of this country—not forest fires, but those destroying what is known as "improvements"—burned up, in the year 1887, property to the value of $130,000,000.

—Miss Clara Campbell, the "Baby Ranting" of the recent Arbuckle breach of promise case in New York, has returned to her home at Frankfort, O., arriving in time to join in the celebration of her father's 80th birthday.

—Wm. Arnold sold to Beard and Carruthers, Lexington, 16 large mules at $155 per head. Some bought eight broke mules at prices ranging from $90 to $140. Thos. E. Baldwin sold last Saturday to R. P. Fox & Sons for shipment to the South a car load of mules at $125.50 per head. [Richmond Register.]
